

Richard Ollier (UK)

Richard joined as a lay order member in 2012

I am a retired teacher, and now the Learning Mentor on the Vow 22 course. I have been a Pureland Buddhist for about twelve years now, and before that practised in the Theravada tradition for many years. I am a mitra in the Amida Order and belong to Sanghamitra's Amida Birmingham group. In 2020, I was awarded a PhD for a thesis I wrote on Dharmavidya and Pureland Buddhism. I am married with two adult sons and three grandchildren.
