

Dawn Hart (UK)

Buddhist name: Kusumavarsa - Rain of Flowers

Kusumavarsa originally discovered Pure Land Buddhism in 2007 whilst training in Counselling and Buddhist Psychology. As a carer for her disabled daughter, Kusumavarsa is all too familiar with the challenges of navigating the UK healthcare system and has used her experience to develop her interest in hospital and hospice chaplaincy.

Kusumavarsa is currently an honorary chaplain for Worcestershire Acute Hospitals NHS trust and supports other organisations within her local community including Acorns Children's Hospice, teaching meditation and offering spiritual support.
